

WIN WITH VIVA

There's no denying that Ruth Negga's lead role in Loving has been a breakout moment for the actress, picking up Oscar, Bafta and Golden Globe nominations in response. She stars alongside Joel Edgerton in this true story of interracial couple Richard and Mildred Loving, which adds to the films of late, such as Hidden Figures and A United Kingdom, that have put the spotlight on civil rights. To celebrate Loving hitting cinemas tomorrow, we have 10 double passes to give away.

COSSETING ESCAPE

Setting the scene for nurturing indulgence starts the moment you walk in a spa door. That is why Hady Wenham, founder of the Forme chain, called in design whiz Katie Lockhart to help realise her vision. A signature dusky pink paint was chosen for walls, with warm metal and timber finishes. The new look has just been rolled out in Wellington and Hamilton, with the Auckland spas, apart from Mt Eden, already refreshed. Forme has also developed its own skincare range, called Bless, in response to customer demand for a natural choice that also met Hady's performance expectations.
